

Audiobook versions available!

Do you know someone who is visually impaired, blind, reading disabled or physically disabled? They should be eligible to check out an audio version of both our adult book, "What the Tide Leaves Behind," and our children's book, "Crossing the Pressure Line."

The audiobooks will be available in November by contacting:

Wisconsin Talking Book and Braille
Library (WTBBL)
813 W. Wells St., Milwaukee
(414) 286-3045
wttbl@milwaukee.gov
<https://dpi.wi.gov/talkingbooks>

OR

Magnify Low Vision Therapy
7511 Harwood Ave., Wauwatosa
(414) 751-8530
<https://www.magnifyot.com/>

Magnify's two occupational therapists, Carolyn Callahan and Claire Bublitz, can also provide training in how to use the book players sent out by WTBBL, as well as provide Talking Book Assessments.

A big THANK YOU to Magnify for sponsoring creation of these audiobooks for Tosa's All-City Read!
